Where do I ship my materials?

Shipping information is appended on the next page (p.5) of this document.

Where is my booth, and when can I see the exhibit floor plan?

The exhibit floor plan, along with booth number and location, will be sent in a follow-up email in early May.

Does my exhibit need to be staffed at all times?

Exhibits need to be staffed as much as possible, due to traffic flow and visibility during session breaks, however staff representatives are permitted to attend general sessions.

Will there be overnight security in the exhibit area?

Exhibit tables will not be in a secured area, therefore we encourage exhibitors to remove anything valuable when not at the exhibit table.
